

Kingston July 20. 1837.

Mrs Chapman.

Respected Madam.

I comply cheerfully with my friend, W May's request, to give you, so far as I am able, a list of individuals ~~on these~~ several towns in Plymo. Co. to whom you may forward such Communi<sup>s</sup> as you may wish on the sub. of Slavery. Any thing you may send, will be received favorably, & promptly attended to, without doubt. Yours, in the best of causes.

Plymouth, Miss Mary R Russell & Mrs Lem<sup>t</sup> Stephens.

} Mrs Jesse Perkins. Jesse Perkins Esq lives in A. Bridgst, he is an excellent man, & will attend to any business you may desire: he is acquainted in both the other towns, & will doubtless send petitions for you to some one, who will circulate them.

Bridgewater, Mrs Moreton Eddy.

Abington, Mrs Joseph Cleverly.

Halifax, Mrs Reuben Sylvester.

Middleboro, Mrs Nathl. Eddy.

Carver, Mrs Eph<sup>m</sup> Harlow.

Rochester, Mrs Oliver Cobb.

Kingston, Mrs Sarah W. Thomas.

Duxbury, Mrs Andrew Peterson.

Marshfield, Mrs Louisa Phillips.

Marshfield, Mrs Azel Ames.

Hanover, Mrs Horace Seaver, & Mrs Alexander Wood.

Scituate, I must refer you back to W May.

Hingham — I must also refer you to W May, I know no Abolitionist there.

Plympton, Mrs Cephas Bumpus, & Miss Jane Hayward.

Wareham, I know no person there, but Rev. Saml Nott Jr, once a Missionary, now a bitter opponent of our cause, & the whole town is under his bad influence.

Pembroke } There are many persons in these two towns who joined the A. S. Society on the 4th of July, but I am not enough acquainted with any of them to know their character &c. I shall probably be in Boston soon, & if I find out, as I shall endeavor to do, I will let you know them.

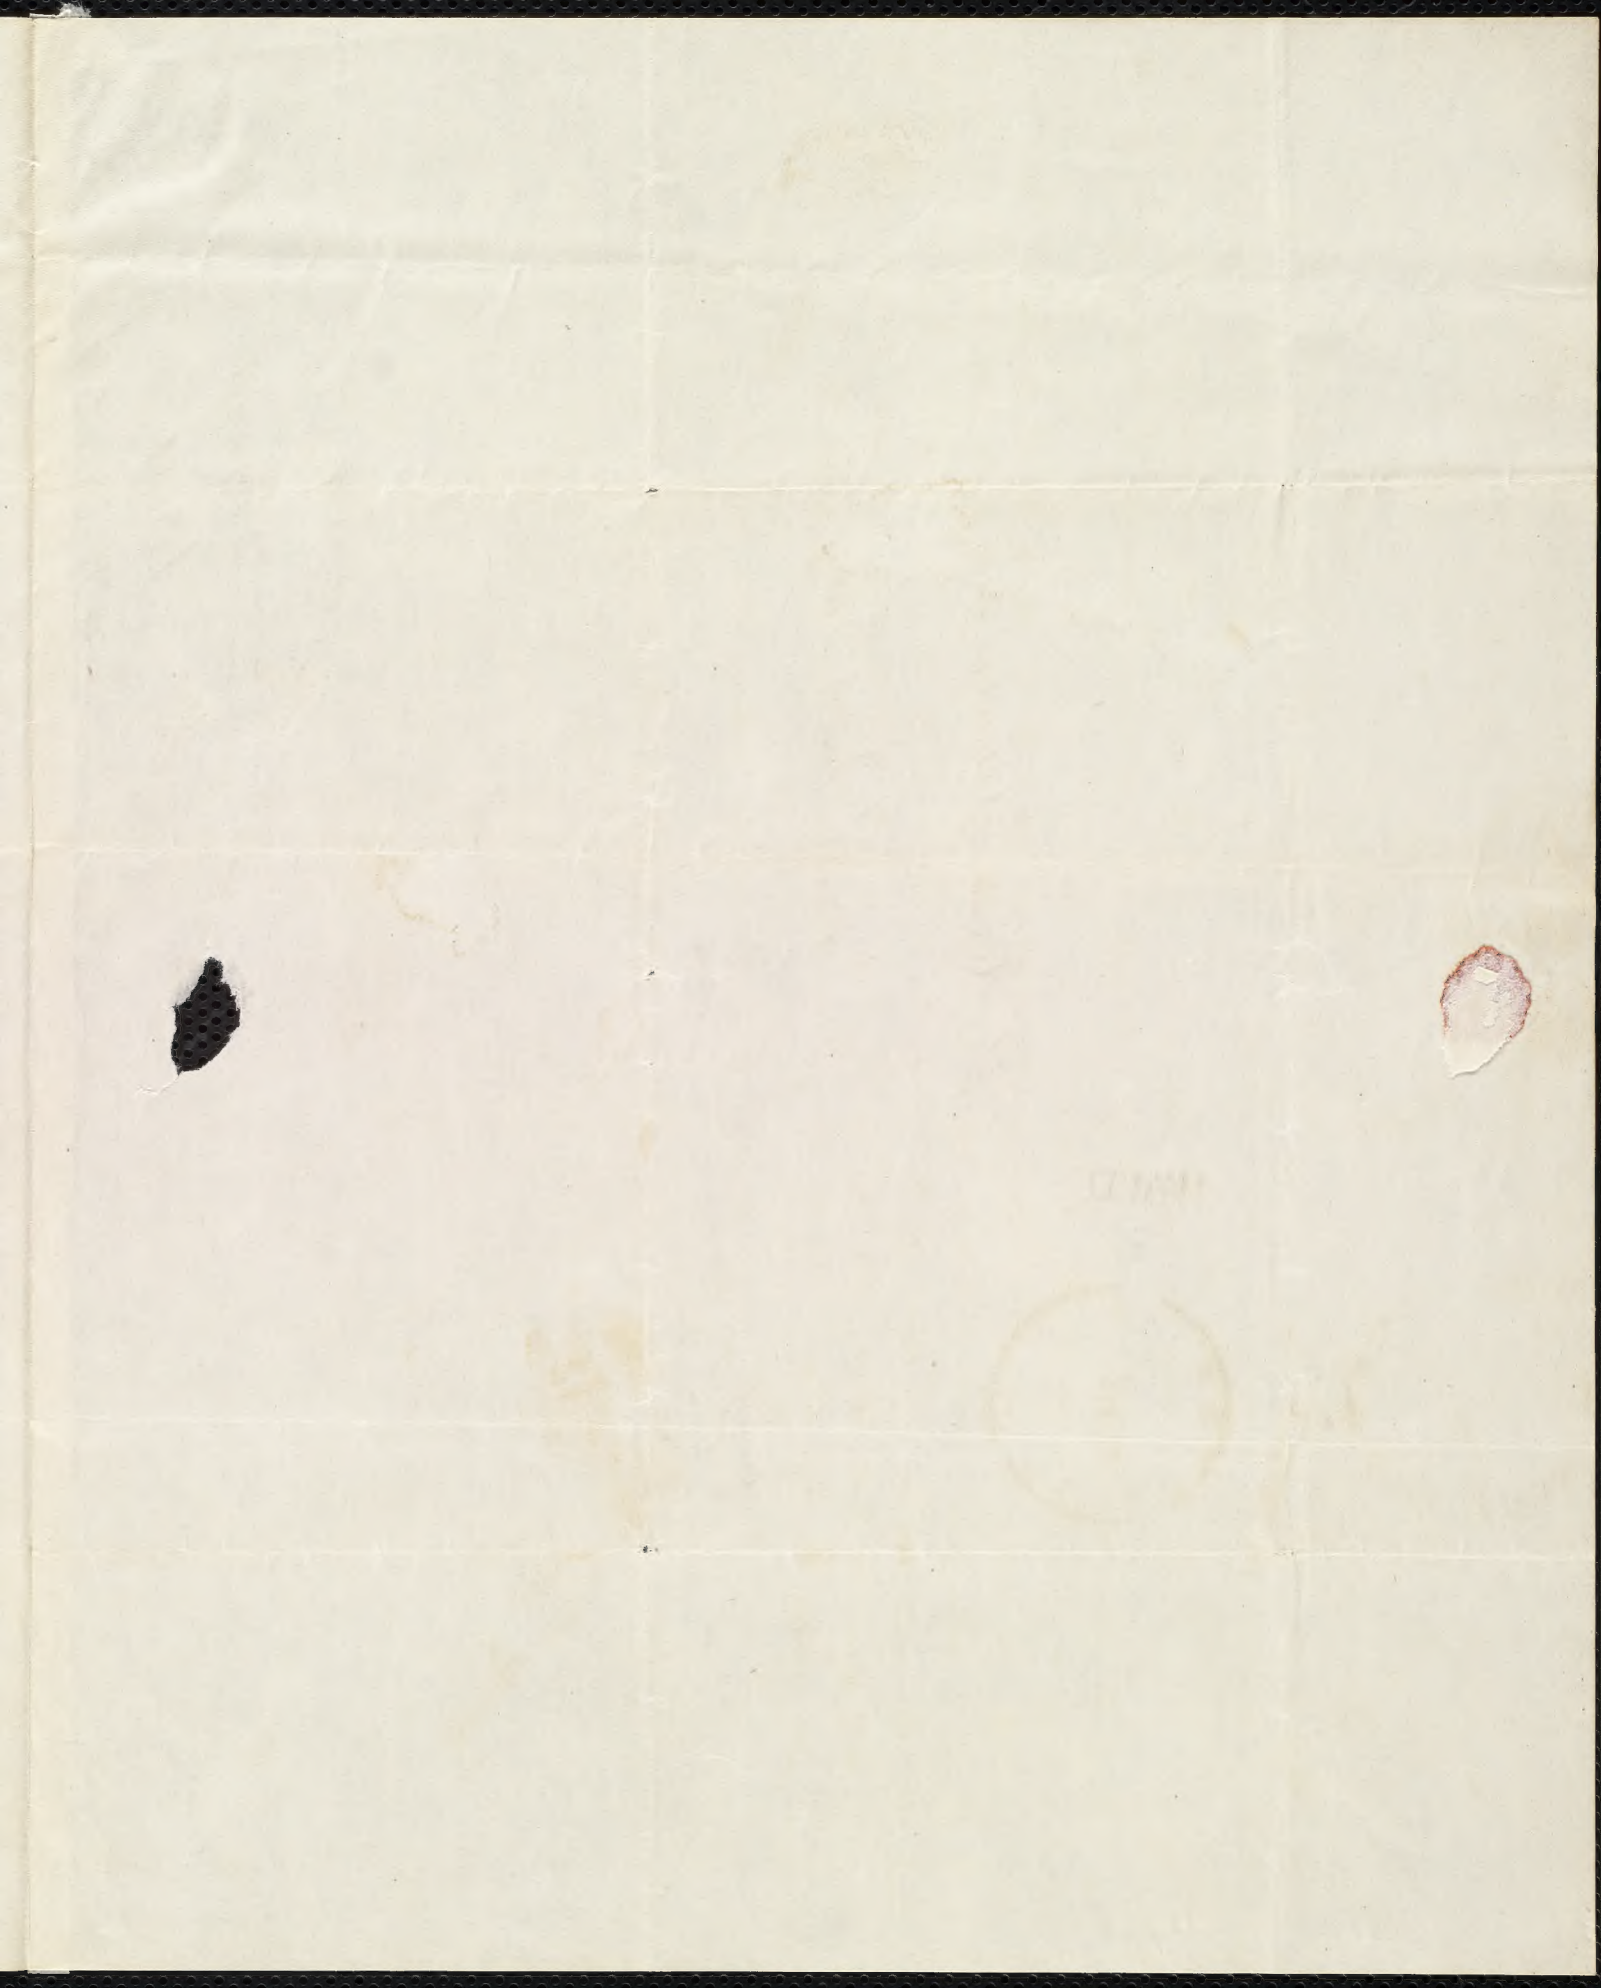

P.S. In sending the above list, I have done the best I could — I have forwarded petitions from your Society, to Plymouth, Plympton, Carver, Kalijer, Kingston, & shall likewise forward to Duxbury, first of port. W. May I suppose has sent some to other towns.

Ms C's "prophecy" I find very convenient to close an Anti-Slavery talk with, as I close with the Texan question what I have to say on the subject of Slavery. I hope your fears will not be relieved, but they coincide with my own on that subject. I think there is great reason to fear, that our country has seen its best days, the Lord prepare us to act our part well, whatever may be come of our country's liberties. As to the poor slaves, I believe they will be emancipated.

G. R.

Pardon me for talking thus familiarly with a stranger.
